Foreign News

Wilcox At Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The advent of Robert Wilcox of Hawaii is awaited with curiosity by Congressmen. He is now in New York and may wait some time before appearing on the floor of the house, as President Dole said he would not issue the certificate of election until the complete official returns were in. The attitude of Congress generally is quite different from that of the people of Honolulu. They will treat Wilcox with outward respect and give him a full hearing. He is regarded as rightfully representing the majority of the people of the Island, notwithstanding the fact he is avowedly opposed to Republican institutions. The members of the House appear to regard the whole affair as a good joke on the white politicians of the Islands, and will take occasion to "rub it in" by treating Wilcox with consideration. Wilcox, however, will have no real influence.

Haywood's Successor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The President today sent the following nominations to the Senate: Roy H. Chamberlain, of Iowa, to be Collector of internal revenue, District of Hawaii; Benjamin H. Tatem, of Montana, to be assayer in charge of the assay office at Helena, Mont. W. Irvin Shaw, of Pennsylvania, to be consul general of Singapore.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The revenue reduction bill as introduced with a time amendment will be favorably reported.

Consideration in the House of the Grant oleomargarine bill was postponed, and the army reorganization bill taken up. Hepburn's amendment filling vacancies in the Quartermaster's Department from civil life or from volunteer officers commissioned since April 19, 1898, was voted down.

The Senate committee on commerce considered amendments to the ship subsidy bill, the most important being that all ships shall take fifty per cent of their cargo capacity when leaving a port of the United States for a foreign port.

The ways and means committee considered the bill reducing the war revenue tax to about $40,000,000.

Gen. Eagan Retires.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Brigadier General Charles P. Eagan, commissary general, was today restored to duty by the President and at once placed on the retired list.

The order issued by the President remitted the unexpired portion of his sentence and restored to "a status of duty with station in this city."

This order was immediately followed by one issued by General Miles announcing that General Eagan has been placed on the retired list today of his own application, after thirty years service.

Would Apply to Wilcox.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—A delegation of ladies of the W. C. T. U. now in session in Washington and others interested in temperance was given a hearing by committee on insular affairs, in advocacy of Representative Littlefield's bill prohibiting the sale of liquor, opium and intoxicants to aboriginal tribes and native races of the Pacific Islands. Mr. Littlefield explained his bill and urged the necessity of adequate legislation to prevent the spread of drinking in the Philippines, Hawaii and other Pacific Islands. Misses Leech, Brehm and others were heard along similar lines. It was pointed out by members of the committee that the measure was rather broad, specifying that if "any American citizen sells to an aboriginal native," etc. It was stated that this would apply to Delegate Wilcox of Hawaii, when he came to Washington, as he is a native. The committee took the measure under advertisement.

Castellanes Talk Back.

New York, Dec. 6.—A dispatch to the world from Paris says: Sensational allegations are made by the Count and Countess de Castellane in their answering affidavits just completed and to be used in conjunction with the injunction proceedings pending in the Supreme Court of New York against George J. Edwin, Howard and Helen M. Gould, as trustees of the estate of the late Jay Gould.

Count Boni de Castellane and the Countess are intensely indignant that any attempt should be made in the American courts to deprive them of their income from the Gould estate. They retaliate by making countercharges of lack of good faith against Asher Wethelmer, the London dealer in articles of virtue, bric-a-brac and other luxuries, who, seeing no other prospects of being speedily paid the $385,000 he alleges the Castellanes owe him, assigned his claim to Antone J. Dittmar of New York, and thus brought on the present legal complications.
